Mussolini's Genoa Speech Is Criticised

PAINFUL SURPRISE IN PARIS

Paris, May 15. Papers of all shades of political opinion here freely express painful surprise caused in French political circles by Signor Mussolini's reference to France in his Genoa speech.

The disappointment at the Duce's utterances appears all the greater since it had been generally believed that the "normalisation" of the relations between Paris and Rome is now practically assured. The Petit Parisien observes that Mussolini's remarks concerning the Franco-Italian negotiations were quite unexpected and that it is clear that certain French proposals relating to Spain were considered unacceptable by the Duce.

SERIOUS SPLIT

The paper goes on to say that it had been evident for some days past that the negotiations had reached a deadlock and that serious divergences had arisen between Count Ciano and the French Charge d'Affaires, M. Blondel.

Le Journal criticises the Genoa speech as "violent and threatening" and "proaches the Duce with adopting an aggressive attitude."

Le Matin asserts that the crowd in Genoa booed whenever Signor Mussolini alluded to France.

The paper writes that no agreement would be possible between Paris and Rome so long as French war material continues to pass unimpeded into Republican Spain. Nevertheless, the hope is generally voiced by the press that an understanding will eventually be reached.—(Transocean)

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS SEVERED

BRITAIN AND MEXICO

Mexico City, May 15.

The British Minister, Mr. Owen O'Malley, has handed a note to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, stating that on instructions from the Foreign Office he would leave Mexico accompanied by the full diplomatic staff of the British Legation.

British interests in Mexico would be left in the hands of the Vice-Consul.

An earlier message from Washington stated that it was reported that Mexico had severed diplomatic relations with Britain.

U. S. WORRIED

State Department officials declared that the rupture may make a settlement of the United States' oil claims against Mexico more difficult.

They add that the United States would be placed in a trying position if Mexico asked the Government to handle its representation in Great Britain.—(Reuter)

RESHUFFLE IN BRITISH CABINET PREDICTED

Sir Samuel Hoare May Be Appointed Air Minister

MR. MACDONALD'S CHANGE

London, May 15.

Much interest is being taken in the forthcoming reshuffling of the Cabinet which is expected to take place before Thursday's debate.

The Sunday Times, commenting on the situation, believes that the Home Secretary, Sir Samuel Hoare, who has had wide experience as Air Minister, will again be appointed to that post in succession to Lord Swinton, in which case Sir Kingsley Wood would become Home Secretary.

The paper anticipates that the Under Secretary for Air, Lord Winterton, who represents the Air Ministry in the House of Commons, will be replaced by a younger man.

COLONIAL OFFICE

The Colonial Secretary, Mr. W. Ormsby Gore, having gone to the House of Lords in consequence of the death of his father, Lord Earle, it is generally thought that the Dominions Secretary, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, who displayed so much skill and tact during the Anglo-Irish negotiations, will be transferred to the Colonial Office.

Despite the Government's decision to treat the announced Labour opposition to the motion demanding a "complete and searching inquiry" into air defence as a vote of censure, Mr. J. L. Garvin, writing in the Observer, insists that the appointment of a neutral and impartial committee of inquiry would afford the sole possibility of ascertaining the truth concerning conditions in the Air Force.

It is known that this view is also shared by Mr. Winston Churchill who will be the Government's principal critic in Thursday's debate.—(Reuter)

RECAPTURE CHAOHSIEN BY RUSE

Success After A Bitter Encounter

LIDUN, MAY 15.

CHAOHSIEN, ON THE EAST BANK OF THE CHAO LAKE, IN CENTRAL ANHWEI WAS RECAPTURED YESTERDAY MORNING BY THE CHINESE BY A RUSE. GENERAL LI PING-HSIEN, DEPUTY COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE CHINESE FORCES ON THE ANHWEI FRONT, INFORMED A REPRESENTATIVE OF THE CENTRAL NEWS AGENCY TODAY.

According to General Li, the Japanese troops in the Chaohsien-Hotel sector numbered between 5,000 and 6,000. The main body of the troops was originally stationed at Chaohsien, which they used as a base of operations.

Bent on first recapturing Chaohsien, the Chinese induced their main body to attack Hotel. The Chinese east of Hotel purposely withdrew without putting up any resistance, General Li revealed.

On May 13, when it was learned that the Japanese were vigorously advancing on Hotel, the Chinese started a "pincer" movement on Chaohsien. Whilst a column pushed toward the city along the south bank of the Chao Lake, another column attacked from the north side.

After a bitter encounter lasting a day and a night, the Chinese broke into the city by scaling the city walls and drove away the Japanese.—(Central News)

Japanese Units At Yungcheng Routed After Smashing Attack

Hsuehchow, May 15.

A turn in the war situation in north Anhwei in favour of the Chinese is indicated by the latest messages received here from the front, which state that Yungcheng, on the Honan-Anhwei border, 40 kilometres south of the Lunghai Railway, has been recaptured by the Chinese.

Japanese cavalry units were routed in a smashing attack and have retreated southward.

Another Japanese unit, which pushed northward from Yungcheng was also defeated at a point about 12 miles south of Tangshan, on the Lunghai Railway.

Japanese infantry units, preceded by mechanised units, attacked the Chinese positions yesterday morning. Chinese soldiers hid in their trenches and took no action until the Japanese were quite near. They then jumped out from their trenches and threw their hand-grenades at the Japanese tanks and challenged the invaders in hand-to-hand fighting.

After a two-hour combat, the Japanese were defeated. Twelve of their tanks were damaged.—(Central News)

HEAVY JAPANESE LOSSES

After an extremely severe engagement at a point fourteen miles south of the Tangshan-Lunghai Railway, Chinese forces inflicted heavy losses on the Japanese column which attempted to cut the railway in Tangshan, according to a communique issued today by the Generalissimo's Headquarters.

Meanwhile, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is said to be greatly elated over the reported Chinese recapture of Chaohsien. The Generalissimo is reported to have ordered that all the troops participating in the Chaohsien attack be rewarded, since the "recapture of the city has an important effect on the military situation south of the Hwai River."

Chinese despatches claim that Chinese troops, after the occupation of Chaohsien, are pushing rapidly to the east towards Hanshan. At the same time fierce fighting is stated to be raging west of Shantung, in the Yutai-Kinghsiang-Chuyai sector, where the Japanese are pushing to the south in the direction of the Lunghai Railway.

TSACHOW SAFE

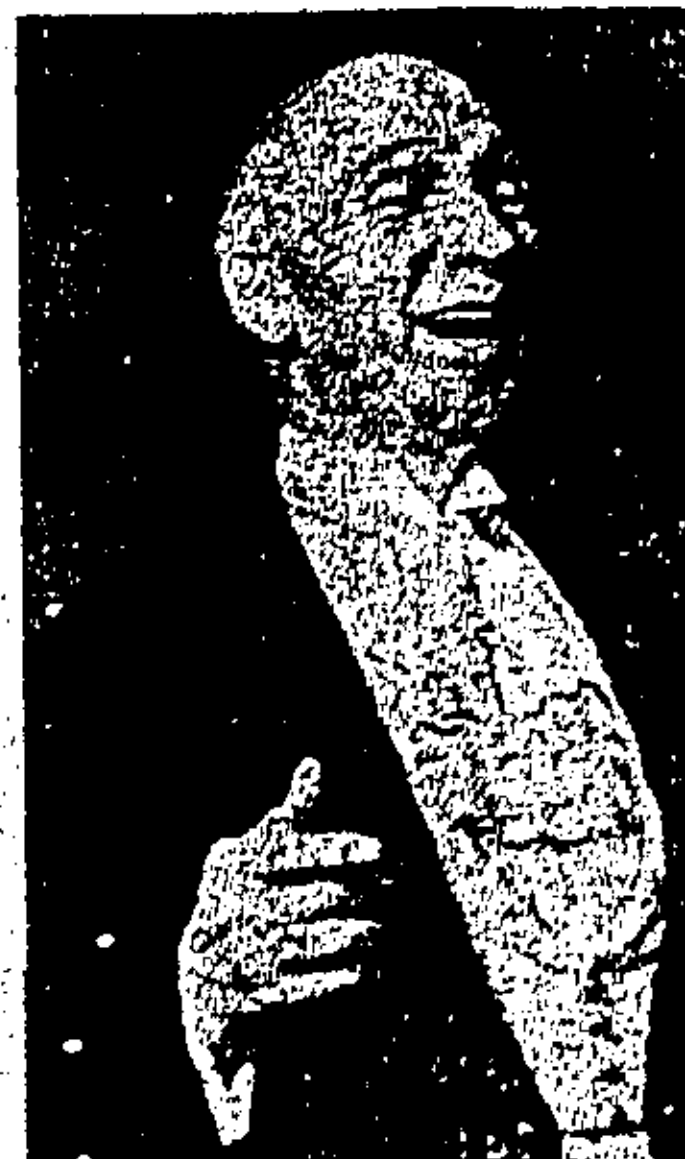

Street fighting, Chinese reports say, is proceeding in Yutai following the success of the Japanese in breaking through the city walls, while an engagement is in progress in the outskirts of Kinghsiang and Chuyai which the Japanese are attempting to take by storm.

Chinese quarters here deny the Japanese claim regarding the occupation of Tsachow, in south-west Shantung. Fighting in that sector, they state, is still proceeding in the outskirts of Hotseh, in south Chuanchen, and telegraphic communication between Tsachow and Hankow is still functioning as usual.—(Reuter)

DAY-LONG RAIDS CAUSE HAVOC IN HSUCHOW

Hundreds Killed; Thousands Of Houses Demolished

RESCUE WORK IMPOSSIBLE

Hsuehchow, May 15.

Surpassing their previous records of destruction, 55 Japanese planes killed and wounded between 700 and 800 people and demolished 3,000 houses in a series of raids yesterday.

The planes bombed the city in relays from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., raining over 280 incendiary and demolition bombs, the largest number dropped in a single day so far. Fanned by a southeast wind, huge fires started in many parts of the city.

Rescue work was practically impossible on account of the quick succession of the raids.

Seven bombs were dropped on the French Catholic Church. A part of the chapel was demolished and all windows were smashed.

A child seeking shelter in the Church was killed and seven persons were wounded.

Bombs were also dropped on the Hsuehchow Middle School, the Hsuehchow Normal School, the Hsuehchow Girls' Normal School, the office of the Hsuehchow Daily News and the Provincial Education Institute. Considerable damage resulted. Several missiles landed on hospitals.

Heavy casualties were caused in the slum districts near the Sleeping Buddha Temple, where between 500 and 600 houses were set on fire by incendiary bombs. Many were burnt beyond recognition.

The casualty list would have been higher had not crowds of civilians fled to the suburbs when the air alarm was sounded. Returning to the city in the evening, they were stunned by the horrible sights.—(Central News)

TWO MISSIONARIES FEARED DEAD

Peking, May 15.

Two British missionaries, Dr. H. G. Wyatt and Miss Gladys were shot and seriously wounded while on their way from Taiyuanfu to Tachau in North Shansi, according to a brief telegram received here from the English Baptist Mission in Taiyuanfu.

They are missing and are feared to be dead. No details of the incident are yet available but two other members of the party are reported to be safe.—(Reuter)

Heavy casualties were suffered in the latter place and over 50 houses were blown up. After bombing, the Japanese machine-gunned the streets of the town.

Foreigner Shot Dead By Japanese

FAILED TO HEED SENTRY'S ORDER

Shanghai, May 15.

Pandemonium reigned in the Hongkew District at midnight on Saturday when a White Russian was shot dead and another seriously wounded by a Japanese naval sentry at the Fearon Road Bridge, Hongkew. The shooting occurred "after the two men failed to heed the sailor's order to stop for examination," according to a statement by the Japanese naval spokesman.

The dead man's name is given as Ivan Hovareh, 35 years of age, and the wounded man is Alexander Leon Baker, 34, who is now in the General Hospital.

Both men, according to the statement, resided in the French Concession and had no fixed profession or employment. Found in the men's automobile, the spokesman asserted, were eight grindstones, a thousand sheets of sandpaper, ten kilograms of copper wires and five large lath screws.

Questioned by Japanese officials, the wounded man admitted that the goods were stolen from Chinese shops in Hongkew.—(Reuter)

PERILS OF GAS IN WAR TIME

DEFENCE AHEAD OF OFFENCE

Scientist Replies To Alarmists

Reassuring statements about gas attacks on Britain in the event of war are made by Prof. James Kendall, who is Professor of Chemistry at Edinburgh University. In his book, "Breathe Freely," published recently (Bell and Sons, 3s 6d).

Declaring that, despite 20 years' researches, it is doubtful whether the number of effective war gases has significantly increased, Prof. Kendall writes:

"Defence has so far outstripped offence that it is not going too far to state that in the event of poison gases being used, on however large a scale, against properly equipped and disciplined troops in a future war, the only significant casualties will be among men who have been taken by surprise and have not had time to adjust their gas-masks."

He believes it improbable that the use of poison gases would be resumed by belligerents should another European war break out, and gives the following facts:

Out of the hundreds of thousands of chemical compounds known in 1918, only 38 actually reached the stage of use in the field as poison gases, and many of these proved to be either of no good at all or of very little value.

It is most unlikely that any new poison gases have been discovered since the war that are markedly superior to phosgene as an offensive weapon or to mustard gas as a defensive weapon.

Prof. Kendall agrees that Lewisite deserves consideration as a possible substitute for mustard gas. The first supplies of this gas were ready for shipment when the Armistice intervened, and they were dumped into the sea. Lewisite, however, is certainly not the super-gas that the alarmists try to make out.

"When anyone tells you that a new poison gas has been discovered that will pass without hindrance through the modern gas-mask you can be 100 per cent. certain that he is wrong," the professor adds.

ROYAL NETHERLANDS INDUSTRIES FAIR IS IMPORTANT MILESTONE

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS AND VISITORS BROKE ALL RECORDS

The 38th Royal Netherlands Industries Fair, which was held at Utrecht from March 15 to 24, proved to be an important milestone in the progress of this institution.

Both as regards participation and number of visitors the 38th Fair broke all previous records. The number of participants for the first time exceeded the figure of 2,000.

The permanent Fair buildings were again extended. A new hall for machinery was erected, which hall was officially inaugurated by H.R.H. Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, and subsequently named the Beatrix Hall.

For the first time the technical character of the spring Fairs, in contrast with the agricultural character of the autumn Fair was more clearly evident. This was due to the fact that the newly constructed hall for machinery gave an excellent opportunity to machinery manufacturers, and the metal industry, to display both heavy engineering and other products.

This technical character was, moreover, clearly demonstrated in the sections for building and roadbuilding materials, which were of the usual high standard as regards quality and variety.

On the whole, participation showed an increase. A new section was established for printing machinery.

The television demonstrations drew large attendances and never before had the public in the Netherlands been able to make the acquaintance of this invention.

Owing to technical reasons these demonstrations could only be held for a few hours a day; notwithstanding this fact 35,000 visitors availed themselves of the opportunity to attend them.

The section "Applied Art in Industry" which, up to the present had been confined to products of Netherlands origin, was now amplified by Belgian exhibits.

Belgium, Germany, France (and Morocco), Italy and Switzerland participated with official and collective sections.

OUTSTANDING ARTISTIC EVENT IN THE COLONY

Anglo-American And Chinese Graphic Art Exhibition

An Exhibition of modern Anglo-American Graphic art donated to China by members of the British Artists International Association and the American Artists Congress will shortly be opened in Hong Kong.

This is the first show of its kind to be seen in the Colony and combined with selected pictures from the first modern Chinese graphic art exhibition that recently toured the world will be an outstanding artistic event in the Colony.

The artist organisers declare that it is the first venture in their plan of international art collaboration between the big national art groups. They call on all lovers of art to support their initiative, which is designed to unite artists all over the world "for peace, democracy and cultural progress."

The proceeds of the exhibition will be devoted to medical relief in China's war torn areas, through the sponsors, the China Defence League and the H.K. International Medical Relief Society. It will be opened by Dr. Tsai Yuen-pai, President of the Academia Sinica and Mr. D. J. Sloss, Vice-Chancellor of the Hong Kong University, at a reception on Friday, May 20, at 4.30 p.m., at St. John's Cathedral Hall, Garden Road, to be attended by notables of the Colony.

It will be open to the public on Saturday and Monday May 21 and 22, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Cathedral Hall and will then be continued from the May 24 to 30 at the Library of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, 65, Connaught Road Central.

ROUND-THE-CLOCK TRAIN TRIP FROM CANTON

Damaged Track Responsible For The Delay

The evening express which left Canton shortly before 8 p.m. on Saturday did not arrive at Kowloon till just before five o'clock yesterday morning.

The train was packed with hundreds of passengers who had a very trying time during the round-the-clock journey, and when it arrived at Kowloon they found themselves stranded in the station, without any means to bring them back to their homes, the ferries and buses not having started work then!

Many of them seated themselves either outside the station or in the Star Ferry wharf, waiting for transportation.

The delay, it is learned, was due to the damages done to the track which had been subjected to severe aerial bombing by Japanese aeroplanes. The track near the Woo Ping was so badly damaged that messages were received about midnight that several places had yet to be repaired. When they were eventually put right the train took over an hour to travel to the next station which was only four to five miles away.

Over a hundred persons were waiting at the Kowloon terminus to meet their friends early on Saturday evening, and many an eager inquiry was made at the Station Master's office regarding the arrival of the express. Each question met with the disappointing answer of "No news."

The express remained at Woo Ping Station, waiting for the completion of the repairs, till about 2.30 yesterday morning and did not leave Chinese territory till about ten minutes past four o'clock.

STOKER'S EXPENSIVE CAR RIDE

Leading Stoker George Hogg, 24, of H. M. S. Parthian, was yesterday fined $110 or two months' and a week's imprisonment by Mr. Butters at the Central Court on charges of driving a car without a licence and driving without the owner's permission.

Hogg was alleged to have stolen a car on the early morning of April 28, and to have crashed into a lamp standard opposite the Supreme Court, damaging the vehicle.

MODEL AEROPLANE CLUB

Although a large number of flying enthusiasts came to see the first competition of the Hong Kong Model Aeroplane Club at the Kai Tak Aerodrome yesterday, it was postponed until next month.

Members spent the afternoon testing their models, and some very fine flying was witnessed.

The reason for the postponement was because there were insufficient competitors, and the wind was too strong for a perfect landing.

Mr. Silva Netto's six-foot wing span, petrol driven plane was on view, and many other fine models were also seen.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, and Lady Northcote were guests of honour at a dinner given by Vice-Admiral J. J. G. M. le Bigot, commanding the French naval forces in the Far East, on board the Lamotte Picquet on Saturday night.

They were accompanied by Captain S. H. Batty-Smith, A.D.C. and Mr. G. Treverton, Private Secretary.

CHANGING FACE
OF FRANCE

BOTH her friends and her enemies are watching France anxiously. Although apparently shaken by internal political dissension, by the fear of social conflict
and the clash of Gaullards and Communists, and by financial instability, France remains a key Power in Europe.

Her prestige and importance in international affairs are not what they were in the days immediately
preceding the Hitler regime. M.
Barthou's project of a League of the Peaceful, functioning from Geneva, and inspired by France,
has vanished.

The curious expectation of the single-minded French that all Europe, with the exception of Italy, would link hands of steel to encircle a resurgent Germany was almost as irrational as the blundering peace which Clemenceau
forced upon Germany after 1918.
France erred in assuming that French "security" could be a European as well as a French policy. Today, however, although she sees with alarm the breakdown of her system of puper
alliances, she can look to an army which has been described as the finest in Europe to preserve France for the French.

HER POTENTIAL enemies hope that the internal stability of France will force her along Spain's tragic road and render her impotent in the European sphere, and her friends hope that a nervous and adamant French
policy will not lead on to a war,
dragging in the willing and the unwilling.

So much is clear. But what is the real nature of the political and economic crisis in France? Is she descending, or is she
working out a solution in her own traditional way?

Time will answer that question
conclusively. In the meantime, it may be wise to judge too
readily by superficial evidence.
Time and again it has been thought that France is a declining Power.

She wasted blood and money in
her long struggles with England
when France and England were competing for empires beyond the seas.

Yet she was able to survive the French Revolution and join with Napoleon in his adventure of world-conquest. Waterloo ended
it; but within a decade the French were laying the foundations of their African Empire.

HER HISTORY in the nineteenth century was one of revolution.
The Franco-Prussian War
seemed once more to spell the end of French power.

The political anarchy which preceded the Great War suggested, also, that France's years of greatness belonged
to the past; but
this belief was destroyed along
the Marne and at Verdun.

Exhausted, but still vital, France
emerged victorious from the Great War, and at once set about
to protect herself for all time
from invasion.

Her unswerving pursuit of "security" (the great cry of the nineteen-twenties) largely brought about the present difficult situation.

Fighting a diplomatic war
against Germany and an economic war within her own boundaries, she has seen with the deepest anxiety the deterioration
of her finances and the decline of her diplomatic prestige.

The collapse of the franc in 1926, the Stavisky rioting in 1934,
the Blum social experiments of 1936 and 1937, and the bewildering changes in Government, together with the enmities between Right and Left, all would suggest that France is in no position to take a leading part in European affairs.

THE PICTURE would appear to be dismal; yet France has survived worse situations. It is significant that while French individualism has created fantastic

JAPANESE BLUFFING JAPANESE

HONG KONG, MAY 15

JAPAN is again trying, by the use of "horror" methods, to scare
the Chinese into submission—this time by the occupation of Amoy. As in all previous cases they have shown themselves in their true colours and world opinion, which is already very bitter against the Nipponese, has been made all the more so by the savagery of the Japanese troops who, after landing in Amoy, proceeded with the slaughter of some 3000 to 4000 innocent Chinese civilians.

As Reuters reports, pandemonium reigns in the once quiet and peaceful island of Amoy. The mass slaughter of innocent men, women and children, reminiscent of the disgraceful conditions which prevailed in Nanking, following its fall, is now being re-enacted by the Japanese, who seem to delight in the massacre of defenceless people—women and children for choice.

As a result of this latest exhibition of Japanese barbarism, there has been an influx of refugees into the Colony, each one of whom brings his or her own tale of the way in which the Japanese have gone about task of occupying Amoy. Each story is more terrible than the previous one and even those who have now become used to all the terrible tales of Japanese savagery are shocked by these latest outrages.

The Japanese, perhaps, would be somewhat disturbed to learn that though their gallant navy has made possible the capture of a small, almost defenceless, island, they have only succeeded in making the Chinese more determined than ever to resist to the last and not rest until the last invader has been driven from the land.

They have, it is true, managed to occupy Amoy, but one question their militarists should ask themselves is, how long will they be able to hold it?

AMONG a certain section of the Chinese people the fear has been expressed that the next step will be the invasion of Canton. To those who have followed the progress of the war, however, it is at once apparent how difficult this would be. With the assistance of their navy, the occupation of a place like Amoy was easy for the Japanese.
The island is so small that it requires but a few ships to surround the place as a preliminary to landing, but to give the Japanese their due, we feel that they themselves realise that tackling Kwangtung is quite another proposition.

For one thing the Japanese have neither the men nor the money for such a campaign. And as far as the occupation of Amoy was concerned it is our opinion that it was prompted by the fervent hope that it would help to suppress the anti-war movement in Japan that is growing in strength each day.

The Japanese are, despite their natural cunning, a very simple people. The whole country may be firmly against war but if reports should come through of any Japanese success, this feeling quietsens for the time being. But the Japanese war-lords and propagandists have told of victories—later proved false—so often that their every statement is now being treated with the utmost suspicion and despite their efforts this anti-war movement is growing rapidly.

Faced with an internal crisis if they go on with the war and threatened with very heavy defeat if they do not send more men to reinforce their fast diminishing troops, the Japanese War Office is in a first-class dilemma. There is actually no need for them to be so placed, for if they will but show a little patience Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and his gallant men will soon settle the issue for them—once and for all.

QUEEN MARY
HAS OVER 400
GOLD KEYSOpens New Hall With A Steel One

London, May 14.
—Queen Mary who is opening the new Lynden Hall of residence for women students of Queen Mary College at South Woodford today,
has declined to perform the ceremony with a gold key.

The College authorities were told that Queen Mary has already over 400 gold and silver keys presented to her at similar ceremonies. Today she will unlock the doors of the Hall with an ordinary steel
key.—(British Wireless).

political explosions in recent years, French patriotism has never neglected the defenses of the country.

Behind the flamboyant political stage the army and air force have been powerfully equipped. Industrial develop- ment has continued, the free
institutions of France have remained, and the constitutional government of the country has not been changed in the slightest.

The French are realistic in a curious way. Their own real interests led them irrationally to attempt the subjugation of Germany; self-interest has led them
to cling desperately to economic methods which will keep the franc shining brightly as the symbol of French materialism, of tight purse-strings and good
money buried in the backyard.

And at the same time they have tried to introduce radical social reforms without disturbing traditional relationships between Capital and Labour. Believing that there are two sides to every question (if it be an internal question) they maintain an uneasy balance between violently
opposing forces.

But, although the French are petestuous partisans, they have an astonishing capacity to become utterly single-minded in the face of a threat to their country
—and, to preserve France, they would unhesitatingly involve the whole world, if it were necessary.

And so France, in these difficult times remains uncertain and incalculable, but always herself.
She is obedient, as much as England is, to a traditional pattern of conduct, and, if history is any guide, she will again, if necessary, fight implacably for
the French tradition.

REVIEW OF
THE WEEK

By "Allegro Moderato"

Many of us listened, no
doubt, to the broadcast given by the Choral Group ZBW Orchestra,
last night. This Group, as we have mentioned before, is made up, in the majority, of young Chinese people. They are all keen students of Occidental music, although one or two of the members
are just as well versed in the music of the Orient. Here, then, we have a group of young Easterners who are interested in Western Art, in one form.

On the other hand, we have Westerners who have spent time
and effort to understand the music
and the arts of the East. Among the many Western musicians we have here, is Harry Ore, the plan-
sic titan, who has transcribed Chinese music for his favourite instrument. He has also, during his instructing tour in Macao, transcribed the folk song of the Ma-
cense, a folk song which is traditional, the origin of which is lost
in the mists of antiquity, and
which may even be heard today.

RECIAT AT THE LYCEUM
From the "China Journal" of April, 1937, we learn that Mr. John Hazelde Lewis, the well-known composer and authority on Chinese music, gave a recital to those interested, at the Lyceum Theatre, Shanghai, on March 31. During this recital he played pieces for
the most part, his own compositions based on Oriental and especially Chinese, themes or adaptations by him to the piano. To better illustrate his point he played
certain Chinese airs on the (ti-ti)
or Chinese dulcimer. One of the most attractive items was a series
of Chinese street-hawkers calls sung by Mr. Lewis, who is one of the few Westerners in existence
able to render these haunting
songs. His book on "Foundations of Chinese Musical Art" was reviewed by the China Journal, in the issue of November 1936.

Now to the point of interest!
—MEI LAN FANG

We have a party of Oriental musicians interested in Occidental music and vice-versa. Now if some force will draw these two parties
together, we have the fusion we have been talking about in our last contribution.

This is the motive of our labours
and all we need is willing hearts,
stout and true and unafraid.

Hello & Goodbye

—BY A. W. HYER—

THIS AIR travel business is a noble one. Passengers have comfort, speed, delightful scenery, and the thrill of flying through the air. But—oh! 5 a.m. rising to depart on 6 a.m. planes is a noble deed, too—all right, Mr. Watts.

Dorado—Imperial Airways

SIX A.M. "They are off," Captain
L. J. White zoomed his silver
ship into the grey, pink and mauve sunrise.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fisher were glad to be returning home, to London after a four months' trip in the interior of China.

Mrs. Fisher, known to her public
as Violet Cressy-Marks, has 20,000
feet of film, North and South China and its interiors. These films will be used in her forthcoming lecture tour of Europe and America.

"What an enjoyable time-saver
flying is today," remarked Mrs.
Fisher, who has flown over South America, Africa, Russia, and knows
what it is all about.

The white haired gentleman, Mr.
Fisher, found in China very interesting information and material
on husbandry, a subject in which he is keenly interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will be welcomed in London by their two children. It will be a gay family reunion and they all will enjoy a vacation of several months together.

Back to Bangkok

"I HAD a wonderful two weeks
visit at Repulse Bay Hotel," reported Miss L. Wood as she boarded the Imperial Airways
plane on Friday, to return to her home in Bangkok.

Miss Wood, wearing a two piece
silk crepe suit of blue and white
print, a blue and white checked
georgette kerchief, tied under the chin peasant style, was bid a fond
farewell by a charming, tall,
brunette gentleman—name unknown.

This was Miss Wood's first trip to the North and she expressed the hope of another in the near future.

Germany's Envoy, to Tokyo,
Herr E. Ott was also a passenger on the Dorado. He has a very disarming smile, but never talks so
very early in the morning.

Kai Tak's Mr. Moss

KAI TAK, a very busy and interesting spot, is supervised by Mr. A. J. R. Moss. When you visit
the airport, and see what makes
air travel "tick," from the ground
standpoint, do not fail to say
"Hello" to Mr. Moss. Though an exceedingly busy person, he is a small walking edition of "Who's Who" and "What's-it" about people who go flying and the planes.

We take this opportunity to say
"Thank you Mr. Moss, we were quite a greenhorn before you took us in hand."

C.N.A.C. Trip No. 31

CAPTAIN H. L. WOOD piloting a huge, new Douglas airship, at your service.

Returning to Chungking, Mr. C.
M. Chao, of the Provisional Bank
of Szechuen, was on another business trip, arranging for the opening of a branch bank in the Colony. On his return home he will complete all details in this regard, and hopes to be back in Hong Kong at the time of the branch opening.

MR. C. M. CHAO, of the Provisional Bank of Szechuen, who has been on a business trip to Hong Kong from Chungking.

Mrs. K. F. Tng, wife of an executive of Eurasia Aviation Corporation, and her two children, Master
V. T. Tng, so very bashful, and bright Miss M. C. Tng, were on their way to Chungking. They were quite excited about the forthcoming trip and were bid goodbye
by their many equally excited
friends.

Empress of Russia

CAPTAIN J. F. PATRICK—and Friday 13th.
He does not like 13th, either.
If we could have watched him take

the comfortable Empress of Russia
out the harbour, I bet we would have found his thumbs crossed.
"The No. 13 does not exist on my
ship," he said with a wily smile.

We will stop teasing, and hope
the voyage to Vancouver will be a pleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Robb, of Iowa, Bingham & Matthews, are away on a six months holiday.

From Vancouver, travelling
through part of Canada and the States, then London, Scotland and back to their "stamping ground,"
via Suva.

Mrs. Robb was camera shy, her curly blonde hair, large blue
greenish eyes, which were complimented by a simple tailored green linen sport dress, would have made an attractive snapshot. "No,
no," she said, with a delightful
throaty laugh, as she wrestled with bags and unpacking.

Bon Voyage and a pleasant vacation.

World Trip

RIGHT in the centre of a world
trip we catch Mrs. A. M.
Osborne, of London. Mrs. Osborne arrived several days ago from the South via Imperial Airways. Her desire to continue via Pan American to the States was thwarted by her doctors.

Mrs. Osborne, who is 75 years of age, sailed on the Empress of Russia to Vancouver. After visiting friends in Canada, she will embark on the Duchess of Bedford,
leaving Montreal June 17, for England.

"My trip has been marvellous so far and everyone has been so attentive and kind, and I hope this will not be my last call to beautiful Hong Kong."

Pan American Airways

THE PHILIPPINE Clipper, with Captain W. Culbertson performing, departed for Manila with six customers, at noon Saturday.
The slim, tall, and good looking
Mr. Alfred Lee Loomis, one of the customers, is flying to Alameda,
continuing on by air to New York
his home.

Mr. Loomis, a nephew of Henry
L. Stimson, left New York last September, for Germany. International law was his motive, he has been studying and analyzing
the laws and their enactments in various countries of Europe and Russia.

Mr. Loomis, a licensed pilot, enjoyed his trip to Hong Kong via Imperial Airways. However, he is all agog over his trip to America.

Mr. Loomis—he is a very serious
young man—however, did find time to study us females, but after a round the world excursion, he still is in doubt as to what makes us tick.

SCATHING CRITICISM OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Chile Hands In Her Resignation

CANNOT REMAIN MEMBER IN THE PRESENT FORM

Geneva, May 15. The withdrawal of Chile from the League of Nations provided the sensation of the concluding session of the League Council on Saturday afternoon. Chile sprang this surprise on Geneva through its representative, Monsieur Edwards who then proceeded to reveal that Chile had been dead in earnest in putting forward its demand for the reform of the League.

Addressing the Council on behalf of the Chilean Government he said that for two years Chile had been clamouring for a re-statement of the aims and objects of the League. It had pleaded for the reform of the Covenant but its plea had been persistently ignored.

The League Assembly had done nothing in the matter and even the Committee of Twenty-eight entrusted with the task of studying the problem of reform of the Covenant had failed to produce any results. And now, declared M. Edwards, the League Council has declared itself incompetent to take the matter up.

The Council's president had intimated his desire in his opening address to the present session, to have the matter of League reform referred to the September meeting of the League Assembly.

The question of the universality of the League had been brought up as far back as 1919 but as it had not been achieved every action of the League reform was exclusively a matter for the League Assembly. It was up to the League Council to arrive at a decision on this question and then get the Assembly to ratify that decision.

As the League Council had again intimated its intention of solving the problem, he was now instructing to inform the Council that Chile had decided to withdraw from the League. In doing so Chile did not desire to indicate that it had turned its back upon the principles of the League of Nations. Chile welcomed every international settlement and had always stood for international understanding.

It regretted having to take this step and it intended to continue with its membership of the International Labour Bureau and the Hague Court of Justice. It declined, however, to belong to the League in its present form. If one day it became universal then Chile would be the last country to hold aloof. —(Transocean).

League Council Approves China Resolution

Geneva, May 15. THE resolution drawn up by the special redaction Committee in connection with the appeal of the Chinese Government against aggression by the Japanese, under Articles Ten, Eleven and Seventeen of the League Covenant was approved by the Council in its Saturday evening session.

Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese delegate to the League of Nations, seeks sympathy.

of war condemned by international law.

Addressing the Council, Dr. Wellington Koo, the chief Chinese delegate, said that it should remain anchored in the conscience of the nations that China was the victim of aggression. Although China had looked to the League Council for aid of a practical sort, he accepted the resolution on behalf of his Government in the hope that it would contribute towards terminating the Far Eastern conflict.

M. Georges Bonnet, France, then assured China of the fullest sympathy of France. China had proved itself worthy of the moral support of the League.

After reference to the part played by France in bringing relief to the refugees in China, he added that the French Government felt especially impelled to combat the poison gas warfare in the Far East.

Lord Halifax voted in favour of the resolution without reservations.

Poland's representative expressed himself as opposed to the formulation of the resolution, and the Soviet representative, M. Suritz, said his Government had looked for a more concrete resolution but failing that he would vote in favour of it in order to lend force to China's appeal.

Dr. Wellington Koo then thanked the Council for the expressions of sympathy.

RESIGNATION OF LORD SWINTON

London, May 15. Lord Swinton, Secretary of State for Air since 1935, is reported to have resigned though this is at present not confirmed.

The fact would not create a surprise in view of the severe criticism of the Air Ministry's inefficient handling of its branch of rearmament, a question in which the Opposition has been engaged and with whom a number of Government

Bombing Of Italian Church In Chengchow Deliberate

STRONG PROTEST TO BE FILED WITH JAPANESE AUTHORITIES

Chengchow, May 15. Deliberate bombing of the Italian Catholic Church in Chengchow on May 13 by Japanese planes was charged by the pastor of the church.

Situated in a secluded part of the city, the church, he said, was easily distinguished from other structures. As an additional precaution, two big Italian flags, each about 30 square feet, and several smaller ones were spread on the compound.

AMOY FORTS FALL

SERIOUS FOOD SITUATION IN KULANGSU

Amoy, May 15.

The forts at Amoy Island held out on Thursday until midday when they were captured by the Japanese. Meanwhile, volumes of smoke are visible in the eastern sections, which presumably issue from burning villages. The fires in Amoy city itself now appear to have been extinguished, but the amount of general destruction must be terrific.

On Friday morning Japanese warships, which hitherto have been lying off the outer harbour, gradually advanced, shelling the mainland fort which was finally captured by a Japanese landing party. The Japanese warships are now lying off the inner harbour, in which British and American warships are stationed.

DESPERATE SITUATION

The food situation in Kulangsu, where the entire civil population is packed, is now growing desperate and urgent appeals for rice, meat and vegetables are being sent out. It is hoped that the Kulangsu authorities can establish contact with the Japanese authorities sometime today with a view to taking steps to relieve the refugee situation.

Meanwhile, Changchow is suffering intensive bombing almost daily, but details are impossible to obtain owing to the general state of confusion. —(Reuter).

MASS EXODUS FROM AMOY LAND

Foochow, May 15.

Besides the refugees who crossed the strait to Kulangsu, 150,000 Chinese in Amoy have fled to Hacheng, Tunghai, Tangkiang and Lunli, on the Fukien coast, after the fall of the city. The authorities in these districts are devising measures for accommodation and relief. —(Central News).

ANGLO-ITALIAN AGREEMENT

Italy's Intention Is To Respect It Scrupulously

Genoa, May 15. "We have not yet forgotten Sanctions," declared Signor Benito Mussolini today making his first speech since Herr Adolf Hitler's visit.

The anti-Fascists exploded in impotent fury when he refused the proposal for joint action at the time of the Anschluss, but since 1934 much water had flowed under the bridge of the Tiber, Danube, Thames and even the Rhine.

"Stress is dead and buried. Without Germany's loyal friendship we would never have been able to do what we have done."

"The collaboration of the Roman and German worlds is destined to leave its impression on the century."

"Mr. Chamberlain's last speech was a recognition of the power of Italy. Our intention is to respect the Anglo-Italian Agreement scrupulously."

II Duce referred cautiously to the Franco-Italian conversations, and said he did not know whether they would arrive at a conclusion. In the sphere of Spain, for example, they were on opposite sides of the barricade. "They desire a victory for Franco."

In conclusion, Signor Mussolini stated that in the case of an ideological war, the authoritarian states will march solidly together. —(Reuter).

HERR HENLEIN'S VISIT

Foreign Minister, Hodza, within the next ten days and that the statute of nationalities elaborated by the Czechoslovak Government will in practice provide for the autonomy of the Sudeten Germans, although the world "autonomy" itself will be avoided.

The paper believes that the German Government is willing to consent to any solution within the framework of the Czechoslovak Constitution on the condition that the latter will be suitably modified. —(Transocean).

GERMAN COMMENT

Berlin, May 15. Regarding the Statute of Nationalities in Czechoslovakia which is now being prepared, the Voelkischer Beobachter remarks that if certain reports that are current abroad may be believed the Statute in question will contain nothing beyond the codification of the existing provisions concerning the minorities in that country.

The paper goes on to stress that this would not afford any solution of the problem, since nothing would be changed thereby, and moreover those provisions have been constantly violated by the Czechoslovak Government.

The minorities in Czechoslovakia, says the paper, are not struggling for codification of their inferior rights "but for complete parity which presupposes complete sovereignty in their respective regions." Nothing less, according to the paper would satisfy the various minorities. —(Transocean).

MUSIC REVIEW

Those who have ears to hear, let them hear our clarion call to arms, for the love of Art!

Mel Lan Fang, the unique, the gentle impersonator of the female has graced our doors! We have the opportunity here of enjoying real example of Chinese art. In his performance on Sunday night "The King's Parting With His Favourite," we have pantomime, music and dance. The orchestra he had brought with him is modified to suit the tastes of the Occident.

We heard Jack Suiter in duet solos with Lindsay Lafford. It was a refreshing treat.

PELLEGGATTI AND ORE Pellegatti and Ore delighted us once more the other night. We liked Ore's own compositions which he rendered on the piano. They were delightful. Perhaps we may hope to hear him play some of his Chinese and Macanese transcriptions next time.

The musical settings for "Snow White" were magnificent. We were only a little disappointed in the type of voice they gave "Snow White." We may be wrong, but it sounded like a crooner trying to sing a classic, but nevertheless, it was very pleasant.

Some time ago we heard The Willow Song from Shakespeare's "Othello," set by Coleridge Taylor. This was featured in a picture called "Men are not Gods." It still haunts us once in a while and absolutely thrilled us when we did hear it.

We could not attend the premiere of "The Firefly" so we made it a point to go to the second run. We thoroughly enjoyed the whole picture, especially the music. We thought the "Donkey Serenade" most attractive, especially the detail of the little boy traipsing along in front of the mules playing his pipe.

COTTON TARIFFS

Cairo, May 15.

It is learned from an authoritative source that the Egyptian Government is ready to give the fullest consideration to the representations made by the British Government against the new tariffs on British cotton goods.

The British Ambassador today had a long interview with the Premier, presumably in connection with the tariffs. —(Reuter).

Shanghai Foreigners' Anxiety

WILKINSON AFFAIR CAUSES CONCERN

Hankow, May 15.

Anxiety is growing in diplomatic circles in Shanghai over the safety of foreign nationals in that city as the result of the alleged assault on Mr. E.S. Wilkinson, a prominent British resident, by Japanese sentries.

The incident is generally considered as having an injurious effect upon Anglo-Japanese relations.

Bombing of churches, and other foreign property in North China by Japanese planes is also deeply deplored. Though most of the missionaries in charge of these churches have been evacuated to safe areas, many Chinese refugees seeking shelter there have been killed. —(Central News).

CHINESE VICTORIES

guns into action, they subjected the city to a terrific bombardment.

After making several breaches in the city walls, they sent about 40 tanks rumbling into the town. The Chinese first used anti-tank guns and, artillery but later charged with bayonets and hand-grenades.

Sanguinary street fighting ensued and continued today, and both sides have sustained heavy casualties. Chinese reinforcements were sent from Chaohsien and other neighbouring points. —(Central News).

CRAIGENGOWER, INDIANS AND KOWLOON F.C. WIN Three Teams With Unbeaten Records In Bowls League

A big win by Craigenower seniors, and the retention by them and the Indian R.C. and Kowloon F.C. of their 100 per cent records, featured Saturday's programme in the Lawn Bowls league.

Craigenower's rink ran up a total of 101 shots against the Police, winning by 62 shots.

There was another "near-possible" when W. Gill recorded a seven on the twelfth head against J. Cook in the second division match between the Civil Service and the Hong Kong Football Club.

Sixes were chalked up by—
R. W. Bradbury's rink, which scored two sixes and three fours to beat G. C. Moss by 15 shots. Moss actually scored on 12 heads.

R. Bass's rink, which aided by a six, two fives and two fours, beat G. Perkins by 22 shots.

T. Carr's rink, which followed up a brace of fives by the opposition with a six, but who was beaten by 5 shots by A. Spary's four.

L. de Rome's rink, which performed the feat at the last end to beat J. A. D. Morrison's rink by 18 shots.

A. B. Allen's four, which beat F. Haynes by 12 shots.

J. Cook's rink, which finished up 11 down to W. Gill's four.

SAIGON TEAM SURPRISES

South China Have To Share Spoils In Fine Game

The Federation Cochinchinoise de Football Association of Saigon caused something of a sensation in local football circles on Saturday when they held the strong South China Athletic Association to a one-all draw before a large crowd on the Royal Naval Recreation Club ground.

The game was a fast and scintillating one throughout, providing some very good play, and frequently the visitors gave the local side object-lessons in ball control and the long passing game. Another noticeable and surprising feature of the match was the abundant proof given by the visiting team that, nippy though South China are, they themselves were actually faster to the ball.

Buu, centre-half of the Saigon side, and one of the best players on view, gave a remarkably fine display and though he never really "bottled up" Fung King-cheung, he yet gave their versatile forward any amount of trouble and succeeded in restricting his activities to a large extent.

Other outstanding players were Tot and Dai, who were jointly responsible for their side's goal and all the other members of the team in some degree or other impressed with their workmanlike exhibition.

For the home side Leung Wing-chiu was unexpectedly ineffective as he took some time to get used to the speed of his opponent, and the forward line as a whole were far more subdued than usual. Fung King-cheung had a hard time evading the attentions of Buu, but he came through the ordeal with a fair amount of credit and incidentally shot the equaliser when a penalty was awarded against Duoc for handling the ball.

Teams:—

F.C.C.—Tink (Captain); Duoc and Cui; Bach, Buu, and Ven; Gulchard, Van, Tot, Tien and Dai. S.C.A.A.—Chiu Siew-hong, Mak Shui-hon and Lee Tin-sang; Leung Wing-chiu, Lau Hing-choi and Lau Tin-sang; Yeung Shui-yek, Lai Shui-wing, Fung King-cheung, Lau Chung-sang and Lee Shek-yau.

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD

EIGHTEENTH "BIRTHDAY" OF CHINESE Y.W.C.A.

Splendid Work Maintained: Increased Activities In Time Of National Crisis

MEMBERSHIP NOW OVER THOUSAND

The 18th annual meeting of the Chinese Young Women's Christian Association was held on Saturday, at 38c Bonham Road. Mrs. Paul S. F. Tso, the President, took the chair.

After a short service, Mrs. Tso thanked the members and friends of the Association for their support and extended a hearty welcome to Mrs. Sin-feng Huang, one of the Vice-Presidents of the World's Y.W.C.A., and to the newly elected members of the Board, namely Mrs. Wong Tse-chuen, Mrs. Shin Kwai-sang, Mrs. Kan Yau-man, Mrs. Wong Wa-lum, and Miss Tam Tak-kwong.

In her report, Miss Shin Tak-hing, General Secretary, said: During the past year, the Association has greatly extended and varied its sphere of activities. At this time of national crisis, war relief and social service work naturally stood out prominently. Our members responded most wholeheartedly and generously towards our appeal for support in relief work, in buying National Bonds, in collecting old clothes for the refugees in Shanghai and in Hong Kong, in making bandages, dressings, underwear and padded coats for wounded soldiers.

First aid classes, air-raid precaution classes were held and were well attended. At the same time we try to carry out our fourfold purpose of spiritual, mental, physical and social development for women and girls of this Colony, and to unite them in the way of Christian life and services. This aim in mind, we divide our programme of work into different departments, each under the direction of a committee.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership, including junior members, has now exceeded the thousand mark. To meet the needs of varied ages and interests, membership has been divided into different groups and club, as the Wah Kwong Clubs for schoolgirls, the Senior Girls' Club, the Young Married Women's Club, the Senior Members' Club, the Industrial Girls' Club, the Dramatic Club, and the Y.W.C.A. St. John Ambulance Nursing Division.

Two important events stood out among the activities organised by the Membership Committee. Women's Day was celebrated on March 8 at the Lee Theatre and was attended by over 3,000 women and girls, representing all classes and organisations. Early this year in co-operation with the Chinese Y.M.C.A. and the Chinese Manufacturers' Union, an exhibition of Chinese products was held at St. Paul's College.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

To try and develop a true Christian spirit among our members, this department organises Bible discussion groups, religious education publicity work, Sunday Schools, Chinese Bible Women's Fellowship Group, United Choirs and services at Easter and at Christmas, prayer meetings for peace, and a series of inspiring lectures by Dr. Stanley Jones.

Under the supervision of this department, an education tour to Canton was organised last summer; many new books have been added to the library; lectures, debates and discussion groups were held every week; visits to local factories were regularly made; and classes in Mandarin, music, hygiene, first aid, home nursing, and English and Chinese cookery were formed and were very well attended.

POPULAR EDUCATION

We have one day-school at Wan-chai for poor girls and this is so popular that every year many have to be refused admittance due to lack of room.

For the factory girls who have not the time nor the means to study, we have three night schools, where they are taught, besides the rudiments of learning, simple hygiene, handicrafts, domestic science, citizenship and religious education.

Under the guidance of two of our secretaries, they have their own clubs, meetings and Sunday Schools. On Labour Day this month, a big concert meeting, presided by the Chairman of the Factory Girls' Club, was held at the St. John Ambulance Brigade Headquarters and over 300 factory girls were present.

On Children's Day, last April, over 1,500 street boys and girls were given a free cinema show at the World and the Grand Theatres, when they were taught simple hygiene, community singing and "safety-first" lessons.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

This committee is responsible for promoting closer relationship

among the members. During the first half of 1937, hikes, bathing picnics, and social gatherings were regularly held; but after the outbreak of war in China, most of these form of activities were stopped in order to conserve all energy for war relief work. Only meetings of educational value were retained.

HOSTEL

Since last summer our hostel accommodation has been taxed to its fullest capacity. The hostel committee is doing its utmost to help refugees to find suitable homes and employment.

CAMP COMMITTEE

Our holiday camp at Chuen Wan proved an indispensable resting place for students, social workers and business girls in the summer. Although the severe typhoon of last September did considerable damage to the building, it is still in great demand by schools and associations for their picnics, conferences and retreats.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Every month we publish a small pamphlet to encourage literary expression among our members, to discuss current problems and to serve as a news bulletin for our members.

GIRLS' WORK DEPARTMENT

Our schoolgirl members are grouped within seven Wah Kwong Clubs (The Light of China). They hold weekly meetings and aim at the development of character and the training of capable leaders. Under the guidance of advisers they plan their own programme of work and learn the value of co-operation, of self-help, of interesting hobbies and of service to others.

During the summer vacation, free summer schools for the poor are organised by the girls themselves. They take prominent part in students' conferences and in relief work. In the Singing and Dramatic Contest held in March this year, over $500 were raised for buying medical supplies for the wounded. On October 10, 1937, out National Day, a mass meeting was convened by the Wah Kwong Clubs, at Caroline Hill, and was attended by over 3,000 women and girls.

WAR-TIME SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

To cope with the increasing amount of war relief work at this time of national emergency, we have been fortunate in securing the services of a new secretary to be in charge of this department. Besides the usual work of making bandages, of collecting donations and contributions from Self-Denial Boxes, and of sending medical supplies to the war zones, this department is now helping to tackle the refugee problem. Workshops and homes for war orphans are being established in co-operation with other women organisations. Classes in hygiene, in citizenship training, in handwork and religious instructions are held regularly.

The Finance Campaign closed last March with gratifying results. For this we should like to take this opportunity of thanking all our friends, members and the Press who, through their valuable co-operation, have helped to bring our activities to fruitful results.

Dr. Katie Woo, Hon. Treasurer, reported that last year's income was $15,474.15 and the expenditure was $15,087.74 leaving a credit balance of $386.85.

Mrs. Shi Feng Huang then addressed the gathering. She congratulated the Y.W.C.A. on its 18th birthday and on the splendid work it had done. The secret of its success was due to continuity of loyal services of the staff, the Committees and the Board. Another reason was because of the co-operation of its members without whose support little could be achieved. She concluded by wishing the Association every success in its future work.

Following the meeting, a concert organised by the Dramatic Club was held to celebrate the 18th anniversary of the Association.

GOING HOME ON RETIREMENT

Mr. H. J. Best, active member of the Hong Kong Philharmonic Society, and who was presented with a set of ivory carvings recently upon his impending departure from the Colony for home on retirement. Mr. Best joined the Public Works Department in December, 1923, and has for many years been a member of the choir of St. John's Cathedral.

PING PONG LEAGUE

South China beat the Chun Shing School by four sets to one in the men's Ping Pong League at the Confucian Club on Saturday and, by virtue of this win, are at the top of the league table jointly with the Ka Kong Club of Canton and the Chun Shing.

Kung Kwok-ho (S. China) beat Ar Lung-fai 2-0

ANOTHER NEW

Berlin, May 14.

A new world record in gliding was established today by the Nazi Group Leader, Kraft, in the class where a definite goal must be reached and the pilot must return to the starting point without an intermediate landing.

Kraft flew from Hornberg to Ansbach and back a distance of 168 kilometres in six hours thirty minutes.

The previous record was 135 kilometres. (Transocean).

TENNIS LEAGUE
STARTS TODAY

By Ex-Tennis

The 1938 tennis league season starts today with a programme of three matches in the Mixed Doubles Division, teams engaged being K.C.C. (A) vs. C.R.C., H.K.C.C. v. L.R.C. and U.B.R.C. v. K.C.C. (B).

The first game should be the best of the three, for, though the Chinese, regarded in some quarters as certain winners of this division, should win with something to spare, yet Kowloon are sure to offer stern opposition.

The respective teams will probably be:—C.R.C.—W. C. Hung and Mrs. Enid Lo-Litton. Tsui-pui and Mrs. Chui Chun-chiu. Paul Kong and Miss Yeung Wai-pang. K.C.C. (A)—E.C. Fincher and Mrs. Williams. E.F. Fincher and Mrs. Burnett. G.C. Burnett and Mrs. Clarke.

The capacity crowd of 32,000 attended the match between the Australians and the M.C.C. at Lord's, and so great was the demand for seats, that the gates had to be closed.

The wicket was good and the tourists soon settled down to some consistent run-getting, the redoubtable Bradman himself delighting spectators with a hard-hit 257 not out while Hassett contributed 57. Score at the close of play for the Australians was 428 for 5.

SAIGON FOOTBALLERS TROUNCE LOCAL TEAM

Hong Kong Outclassed In Every Department

The Saigon footballers who thrilled local enthusiasts in their match against South China on Saturday decided to give the Hong Kong Football Association a lesson in yesterday's game, when they won by four goals to nil on the Navy ground at Causeway Bay.

The visitors played like real professionals and clearly outclassed the Hong Kong team in every department of the game, particularly in the second half when the local players seemed to crack up badly.

The pace set by the visitors was obviously too much for Hong Kong, who combined badly in both halves of the game. The visitors' forward line, on the other hand, displayed superiority in combination tactics and on many occasions made rings out of the local defence line and only a makeshift and smart work by Sammy Tsang saved Hong Kong from a heavier defeat.

The visitors' forward line was a treat to watch, the players being always in position to receive a pass. Buu, the visitors' pivot, worked very hard and some of his passes were well placed. He was the mainstay for his side's defence, and Tinh, the custodian, also put in some fine work.

For the local side, Costa was the outstanding player. He was kept so busy at times that he was running all over the field in attempts to foil the oncoming forwards. Sammy Tsang was tested time and again by the visitors, who were pressing most of the time. He was not given so much work in the first half, but during the latter stages of the game he was put to a constant barrage of shots from long and close ranges. Lau Tak-po was a hard worker for his side.

LEONARD ROBBED

Salgon kicked off and sent the ball right down the field. Glucha intercepted and centred but Sammy Tsang saved and sent the ball back to mid field. The Hong Kong forwards had possession of the ball soon after but, as he was about to shoot, Leonard was robbed of the ball. From the resulting play, Tol took a shot at goal from near the penalty area but Sammy Tsang saved it.

Play was even for about ten minutes, both sides having shots at goal. Lai Shiu-wing nearly scored once but Tinh ran out and cleared. The visitors narrowly missed scoring about 20 minutes after play started when Sammy Tsang ran out to clear and lost possession of the ball. The goal was left wide open but the ball was sent over the bar. Soon after, from the resultant kick down midfield, Lai Shiu-wing narrowly missed scoring when he shot and the ball went wide by a few inches.

The visitors' first goal was scored when in a dribbling movement inside the penalty area Tol intercepted the ball and shot. The ball touched the underside of the cross-bar and rebounded into the corner of the net.

LOCAL TEAM SLACKENS

At half time the score remained at 1-0.

At the resumption, the visitors worked harder but the local side seemed to have slackened. In the first few minutes of play the local forwards were afforded two opportunities inside the penalty area but were too slow to make use of these chances. For the last 20 minutes of play, the visitors had the game almost to themselves, their forwards made many attempts to score. The second goal came when after a fine piece of footwork Quang shot and scored. He repeated this less than one minute after the resultant centre from midfield and Tol scored the final goal.

The teams were:—
Saigon: Tinh; Duoc, Chu; Pac-clin, Buu, Ven; Glucha, Quang, Tol, Tien, Dai.

H.K.F.A.: Sammy Tsang; Bowen, Costa; Hassan, Lau Tak-po, Hui King-sing; W. Knox, Lai Shiu-wing, Leonard, Mak Siu-hon, Hau Sing-to.

TENNIS LEAGUE STARTS TODAY

By Ex-Tennis

The 1938 tennis league season starts today with a programme of three matches in the Mixed Doubles Division, teams engaged being K.C.C. (A) vs. C.R.C., H.K.C.C. v. L.R.C. and U.S.R.C. vs. K.C.C. (B).

The first game should be the best of the three, for, though the Chinese, regarded in some quarters as certain winners of this division, should win with something to spare, yet Kowloon are sure to offer stern opposition.

The respective teams will probably be—C.R.C.—W. C. Hung and Mrs. End Lo-Litton, Tsui-pui and Mrs. Chui Chun-chiu, Paul Kong and Miss Young Wal-pang; K.C.C. (A)—E.C. Fincher and Mrs. Williams, E.F. Fincher and Mrs. Burnett, G.C. Burnett and Mrs. Clarke.

BRADMAN HITS 257 NOT OUT AT LORD'S

Capacity Crowd At M.C.C. Match

SUTCLIFFE SCORES CENTURY

London, May 15.

The capacity crowd of 32,000 attended the match between the Australians and the M.C.C. at Lord's, and so great was the demand for seats that the gates had to be closed.

Don Bradman, the Australian skipper, won the toss and elected to bat. The wicket was good and the tourists soon settled down to some consistent run-getting, the redoubtable Bradman himself delighting spectators with a hard-hit 257 not out, while Hassett contributed 57. Score at the close of play for the Australians was 428 for 5.

OTHER MATCHES

Close of play scores in the County Championship matches were:—Sussex 307 for 2 (Jim Parks 131 not out, Cox 109) v. Notts; Cambridge 209, Northants 96 for 4.

VOLUNTEERS LOSE TO MINDANAO

Hong Kong Volunteers made an inauspicious start in their baseball programme on Saturday when they were trounced to the tune of 28 runs to eight by U.S.S. Mindanao.

They gave the impression of being stiff and short of practice, with one or two exceptions, but chief reason for their big defeat was very bad pitching and fielding of a low standard such as the team as seldom or never shown before.

For the winners Stefan was in great form with the bat, scoring four hits in six visits to the plate.
